IN SPECIAL MESSAGE PRESIDENT URGES SUPPRESSION OF ANARCHY.

Asks Congress to Pass Special Legislation Prohibiting the Use of Mails for Murder, Arson and Treason.

STAMPING IT OUT IMPORTANT

All Other Questions, He Says, Sink Into Insignificance When Compared to the Necessity of Suppressing It. Prohibit Circulation of Papers.

United Press Telegram.

WASHINGTON, April 9.— Stringent legislation for the suppression of Anarchy, particularly in the matter of the dissemination of Anarchistic literature, is recommended in a special message to Congress today by President Theodore Roosevelt. The message is as follows:

"I herewith submit a letter from the Department of Justice, which explains itself.

"Under this opinion I hold the existing statutes gives the President power to prohibit the Postmaster General from being used as an instrument of crime; that is to prohibit the use of the mails for the advocacy of murder and arson, and treason, and I shall act upon such construction.

"Unquestionably there should be further Congressional legislation in this matter. When compared with the suppression of anarchy every question sinks into insignificance. An anarchist is the enemy of all mankind, and has a deeper degree of criminality than any other.

"No immigrant is allowed to come to our shores if he is an anarchist, and no paper published here or abroad should be permitted circulation in this country, if it propagates anarchistic opinions.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Attorney General Bonapart's letter accompanying the message contains an exhaustive review of the statutes with reference to the use of the mails. He finds that, although there is no law expressly forbidding the circulation of anarchistic and seditious publications by means of the Postal Service, the Postmaster General is warranted in taking action, as he did in the case of the La Questione Sociali, an anarchistic paper of Paterson, N. J.

YOUGH WATER

Will Soon Flow Through the Streets of Fairchance and Afford Fire Protection.

Special to The Courier.

FAIRCHANCE, April 9.—At the last meeting of the Town Council bids were opened for the putting down of the borough fire and house supply system. There were eleven bidders for the contract, and after long and careful deliberation the Town Council awarded the contract to C. A. Malone of Hollidaysburg, whose bid was $3,623.70, he being the lowest bidder of the eleven. Three of the bidders were from Fairchance, Nixon and Younkins, J. K. Gates and E. D. Humphreys.

The contract for the furnishing of hydrants, valves and valve boxes was awarded to the Fairbanks Company of Pittsburg, whose bid for the supply needed was $781.58. The estimated cost of the water line and fixtures is $15,000. Home labor as much as possible will be employed by the successful contractor.

The matter of getting a water supply for Fairchance was taken up more than two years ago with the Trotter Water Company, who had laid a heavy branch from the big main going to York Run, in order to take care of the town should it ever decide upon having a water supply for fire protection and house supply. Arrangements were completed with the Trotter Water Company some months ago.

FAST PASSENGER TRAIN STRIKES A BIG ROCK AND PUSHES IT ALONG TRACK FOR 150 YARDS.

Within sight of Laurel Run, where the disastrous Duquesne wreck occurred December, 1903, fast passenger train No. 9, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, this morning shortly after five o'clock came very near meeting with a horrible disaster.

The train was in charge of Engineer Thomas Burton and Conductor Elmer Evans, and having left Connellsville a few minutes late, was rounding the sharp curve at Oakdale, about three-fourths of a mile west of Laurel Run, when it crashed with full force into a boulder as large as the inder of the big engine No. 2123.

The pilot of the engine and the forepart were crushed in by the impact of the crash, but the engine pushed the boulder forward on the track nearly 150 yards before the train was brought to a standstill. This is considered a remarkable feature of the accident, but it seems that the stone was lodged squarely across the two rails and the force of the train shoved it without derailing the engine or cars.

The shock to the passengers was severe, but none of them were injured except from the shock and a few slight bruises. Some of the Pullman passengers from the east, who were bound for Pittsburg, were badly jolted in their births and had a quick awakening, but other than this their injuries did not amount to anything.

It was necessary to return the train to Blickman Run, and switch it on to the eastbound track, delaying it sometime. The Connellsville wrecking crew was dispatched to remove the rock from the track and found it a big undertaking. In this vicinity there are a large number of rocks overhanging the road and trainmen have feared their falling for some time. Laborers are now at work on these.

HAIR PULLING MATCH

HOT HEARING BEFORE SQUIRE.

Who Has to Dispense the Principals to Prevent Another Battle Between the Warring Women and Their Several Friends.

Sensational statements and accusations last evening were hurled about in Magistrate W. P. Clark's court at the hearing given Mrs. Ralph Wiant, charged with assault and battery by Mrs. Thomas Holt. On Fayette street near Main at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon a sensational encounter took place between the two women that aroused the entire neighborhood and brought a large number of witnesses and spectators into the Magistrate's court last night.

Mrs. Holt, who is almost 50 years old, was the chief witness in the fracas, which seems to have been brewing for some time. She testified that Mrs. Wiant had assaulted her in an encounter yesterday afternoon. She left her home to walk to Mrs. John Gault's residence and near the gate the two friends met and were conversing when Mrs. Wiant appeared upon the scene and, taking from her dress a long elder stick, belabored her with it, striking her three times. Mrs. Wiant, she testified, said as she struck the first blow: "I've been laying for you, and now I've got you."

Mrs. Holt attempted to defend herself, and with the third swish of the stick she reached up to grab it, when her rat was torn from her head. Mrs. Wiant then seized her and had her in a stooping position, when Mrs. Gault interfered and pulled the witness away. This ended the conflict as far as the real action was concerned, but not as far as the feeling went in the matter.

Joseph Wilson and Harry Austin, who were engaged in work on a nearby house, saw the finish of the scrap and testified that they heard lots of talking, some of which was not very elegant. Austin said he saw the two women together on the sidewalk "pulling hair," after which Mrs. Holt walked to her home.

Mrs. Frank Holt testified that she saw Mrs. Wiant strike Mrs. Holt, and she heard some very unbecoming language. She also heard Mrs. Wiant say that she was on the lookout for Mrs. Holt and saw the three blows struck with the stick. She was in the kitchen and on cross-examination of Mrs. Wiant's husband said that she didn't have to look around the corner of a house to see the disturbance.

The defendants desired to present their side of the case, but as Magistrate Clark was not empowered to hear both sides, he refused to go further into the testimony. This aroused the ire of the defendants and some plain talk was indulged in relative to the characters of all concerned.

The defendants claimed that they could prove that Mrs. Holt had struck the first blow in the melee and had brought about all the trouble, but this only induced the advice of the magistrate to proceed legally to such an attempt to prove it. The bail bond was fixed at $200 for a hearing in court, Daniel Mitts furnishing the bail.

The most exciting scene was witnessed after the hearing, when there was promise that another round in the fight was about to be pulled off. The men counselled peace and a cessation of talk, but the women on both sides had their fling and more serious charges were made after the hearing than during it. Thievery and other things were intimated, and all the little favors that had been done in the way of loaning things were aired. Magistrate Clark ordered a dispersal of the crowd before real live war broke out.

It is said that other informations involving both sides of the question and new phases of the case will come up before a magistrate for trial this evening or tomorrow. Both sides are hunting law and are anxious to have it, and the tongues of the Pinnacle residents are busy today, discussing the questions involved, adding to and taking from the rumors and stories as they see fit.

REFUSES CHECK.

Burgess A. D. Soisson Will Not Accept Voucher at Reduced Rate Made by the Council.

Burgess A. D. Soisson's check for $50 for services during March is still in the hands of the Borough Clerk. Chief of Police Rottler called for his pay and that of his officers and in an accommodating humor also said that he would take the Chief Magistrate's voucher and it was given him. He expected to hand it over and receive thanks for the good turn, but when it was presented Burgess Soisson refused its acceptance. Chief Rottler handed the paper back to the clerk.

How the difficulty will be worked out seems to be a mystery on both sides. Burgess Soisson says the ordinance is illegal and will stick to his point, because he has excellent legal advice, but how to get his salary is the question. He may take the check, and in the collection of fines retain an additional $10 for his services, or he may decide to collect all the fines and retain them awaiting a legal construction of the matter by the courts.

There is some talk among the Councilmen of reconsidering the action of passing the ordinance over the Burgess' veto, especially that part relating to the immediate placing of the ordinance into effect. Burgess Soisson, it is claimed, worked under the old law until the new one was passed, and it does not become operative until notices are posted and the ordinance advertised, and this would legally entitle the Burgess to the salary of $60 per month for his services last month.

LADIES AID CHILDREN

Cause a Legal Tangle for Fees in South Union Township.

NOBODY SEEMS TO KNOW

Who Shall Pay for the Tuition of Pupils Who Attend a Public School Outside Their Own District—Court Asked to Decide.

UNIONTOWN, April 9.—A peculiar case involving the collection of tuition from scholars from districts outside of the district in which a school is located has presented itself to the court and has been passed to Attorney General M. Hampton Todd, for his views and construction of the law. An Act of Assembly passed makes it lawful for the collection of tuition fees from scholars from a foreign district, but the law does not specify who or what department shall pay the tuition.

South Union township has brought the question to light. Mrs. M. B. Rutter established a home sometime ago, to which the Ladies Aid Society has been sending a large number of children. Last year the Home took care of 20 children and this year it is taking care of 30 of them. The children attend the schools of South Union township, and the School Board desires to collect the tuition. It asked the Poor Directors about it and they said that it was right that the Board should receive the money, but it did not have any right to pay it. Then the Board went to the Commissioners and they said the claim was just and the Board ought to be paid, but they didn't see how they could do it as they were not authorized.

Thereupon Harry A. Cottom, acting for the Board, presented a petition to the court asking that a rule be granted on the Commissioners requiring them to pay the tuition, but the Commissioners had already referred the matter to their attorney R. F. Hopwood, and a decision of the court is now withheld until the Attorney General's construction was placed upon the law.

MILLER BROS. BIG STORE GUTTED BY FIRE EARLY TODAY.

Blaze Started in Private Apartment on Third Floor and Burned Furiously, Threatening Whole Town.

LOSS IS PLACED AT $65,000.

Firemen Put Up a Hard Fight to Save Spread of Flames to the New Central Hotel and Other Buildings—Little Insurance.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTTDALE, April 9.—A disastrous fire, which threatened the very heart of this town, broke out at two o'clock this morning, and before the flames could be overcome had completely gutted the large department store of Miller Brothers, prominent merchants of this place. Firemen put up a strong fight against the flames, and as the water supply was adequate their efforts proved availing, and the fire was confined within the Miller building.

The store had been heavily stocked with goods for the grand spring opening last Thursday evening, the stock representing, it is claimed, fully $65,000 outlay.

The fire is thought to have started in the rear of the third floor, and had gained considerable headway when first discovered. The alarm was sounded, and the firemen responded promptly. Lines of hose were run from every available plug, and soon the streams of water were pouring into the building from every side. Had the fire started among the dry goods, it is thought it would have been checked much sooner, but the flames had gained headway in the rooms of a private family which occupied a portion of the building on the third floor, and the firemen could not gain easy access to these apartments.

As soon as the streams could be directed into the right spots, the firemen were able to make some gain, and the crowds of people who had turned out from all parts of the town were able to see that they had a chance to win against the fire fiend.

This could only be accomplished by flooding the whole structure, however, and fancy stocks of dry goods, notions and men's clothing were drowned in the efforts to overcome the flames.

For a time it seemed that the Central hotel, recently opened could not be saved. The Miller building is located in the very heart of the town, on Pittsburg street, and had the Central Hotel been added to the fire, the whole town would have been endangered.

When the flames had been subdued, the Miller building was gutted, the water stood three inches deep on the lower stories, and the whole stock was ruined. The loss is placed at $65,000.

Owing to the high rates of insurance charged in Scottdale, only a small amount was carried on the stock and building.

In the Local Lockup and Then Has Trouble in Getting Him Out to Be Present at the Marriage Before Squire Clark

James Gibbs a Hecla negro, got out of jail and got a wife and little picaninny all at the same time yesterday afternoon, when Magistrate W P Clark performed the wedding ceremony Gibbs made love to Jeannette Wiley of Lynn Station and after promising to marry her skipped out at the all important moment Jeannette could not find him for a long time and a little stranger arrived on January 16

Then she began looking for Gibbs in earnest and a few days ago located him at Hecla Magistrate Miller gave her a warrant for his arrest and she went after him securing the service of State Constable F C Plinston of that place

The girl got her man in the Connellsville lockup last Monday and then the trouble to get him out began He was willing to marry her but she learned then that she could not secure a license as she was only a bit over 16 years old Home to mother she journeyed and before a Brownsville magistrate she secured the papers for the necessary consent Then back to Connellsville she came with the paper but she learned then that she needed a marriage license

Gibbs whiled away the time in the borough lockup waiting his release The girl took the application to the Register and Recorder's office at Uniontown found that another obstacle was to be confronted She had gotten her prospective husband into jail and the costs had piled up and money was scarce After maneuvering around for some time it was arranged that Gibbs pay the costs and the wedding was arranged and pulled off at 5 o'clock in the office of the magistrate last night

The girl was happy and the man seemed to be pleased over the affair He is said to be an industrious workman and he likes the little chocolate colored tot which was a guest at the marriage of its father and mother

BIG PEDRO GAME.

Dawson Players Defeat Connellsvillians Who Are Undismayed

The biggest pedro game of the season was pulled off last night at the home of Burgess Harry Cochran of Dawson and the dozen of Connellsville experts who went to the filed of battle returned home defeated but undismayed Thirty games were played and the local men won 12 of them and the Dawson men 18 but two imported players from Vanderbilt who helped to vanquish the Dawsonites on a previous occasion are given credit for the villagers winning

Pappy Echard and Pappy Straub of the Smith House went down to ignoble defeat Mr Echard is the world wonder or was until last night in playing pedro, but he lost the honors accumulated in years by not winning a single game and he had one of the most noted partners Dr Roy Marsh to help him

The Connellsville contingent went to Dawson intent upon choosing their partners by lot, but when they arrived there the Dawsonites had made up their partner list and would not agree to choosing by lot The Connellsville contingent being guests could not insist upon the rule The game was hardly started until the Dawsonites, so the local men say began running up their signals The signals were worked to a finish and the local players say that it was even remarkable to win any games under the efficient block system established by each partner

The local players are contemplating challenging the Dawsonites for another round in Connellsville, where the sign language will be tabooed by casting for partners Some of the signs, however have been learned

Burgess Cochran did not play himself, but saw to the comfort and pleasure of his guests After the games were finished a three course luncheon was served and it was elaborate and delicious It was one of the most enjoyable features of the evening for the home players There was no sign language about it

The Connellsville players were Warren L Wright, Bert J Smith, J W McClaren, Cyrus Echard, C L Straub, J R. Davidson Dr R S Marsh, H G May, W D McGinnis, Robert Norris, F R Graham, Ralph K Long

The Dawson players were A J Cochran Earl Ober, J J McFarland Biddle Hornbeck Dr H J Bell C P McGibbons R R Rist, R D. Henry H M McDonald H C Rush, C J McGill, J S Laughrey

VANDERBILT April 8—Permit me to call your attention to an article of yesterday's issue of The Courier relative to the financial condition of New Haven borough also call your attention to that part of your address in which you tried to hold up to ridicule the financial condition of this town

While it is true that our school teachers have not been paid for nearly three months are not the same conditions true of yours and other towns?

And what you had to say about our issuing bonds and effort to sell them was a misrepresentation of the facts Let me state you the facts When we incorporated our town we took in the school house and of right owed the township something on the school building as well as a proportionate part of the township debt The courts of Fayette county fixed that amount at $3,000 In order to pay that debt and not overburden our people our School Board issued bonds for that amount Before they were ready to offer these bonds for sale one of the Fayette county banks asked for them and the School Board decided to let them have them When the bonds were ready for market the bank was not financially prepared to handle them That brought it up to the heels of the panic when no bank or individual would buy any bonds though they were gilt-edged

Our people are in the same plight financially as your people the fact is our collector cannot collect his taxes Same with your collector

In answer to your remarks as regards the incorporation of this town I have to say Your sneak of an informant lied to you The first move made was during the time a licensed hotel was conducted by James Dolan It was then proposed to take in East Liberty but on account of their protest the matter was dropped And after that it was frequently agitated but no move was made until the year 1905 when the court was petitioned for a borough and the petition granted

The general conditions are very much better in every conceivable way Our sanitary condition general order streets etc and because we want to make our conditions better our homes more habitable we are charged with doing this for a saloon

Dr Gallagher allowed some one to mislead him His Sunday speech was well received but his speech of last night was not

Had the committee been wise and left him at home this borough would not have gone for Local Option but now watch the result Our people have some feeling and Dr Gallagher will see as well feel the effects of his address * * *

THE POT AND THE KETTLE AND THE NEIGHBORS

The Pot called the Kettle black and the Neighbors called the Pot impudently inconsistent, and the judgment of the Neighbors has never been disputed

The Slatemakers of Fayette county call Senator Crow and his friends "The Court House Ring" They lay great stress on the fact that Prothonotary Sheppard and Recorder Rush have each served two terms and that Senator Crow has held the office of District Attorney and is now State Senator. But they ignore the fact that EVERY MAN IN "THE COMBINE," WITH PERHAPS A SINGLE EXCEPTION HAS HELD OFFICE AND FED FREELY AT THE PUBLIC TROUGH, MOST OF THEM EVEN LONGER THAN THOSE WHOM THEY ARE FOND OF DESIGNATING AS "THE RING" IN ORDER TO DIVERT ATTENTION FROM "THE MACHINE"

The Courier has never found fault with any deserving man who has served in a public capacity more than one time or more than one term, through the unbribed and unawed choice of the Republican party expressed in fair and open contest On the contrary, we have befriended some if not all of the members of the Slatemakers' Society in their political aspirations, aye, even in their continuing and mounting ambitions

"Honest Abe" Lincoln didn't believe in "swapping horses while crossing the stream" He was a two term man So also were Washington, Jefferson, Jackson, Grant, McKinley, Roosevelt and all the other great Presidents, while the people have delighted to honor their great statesmen term after term and times without number The fact that a man has held office is therefore, not necessarily a bar to his reëlection or his election to another office His faithfulness to the interests of his constituents, and his ability to serve them well, are legitimate matters for the consideration of the voter The survival of the fittest applies in politics as well as in other lines of employment

The bold and insolent, brazen and shameless Pot may declare that the Kettle isn't fit and shouldn't survive, but it cannot hide its own color from the people THE LATTER WILL NEVER CONSENT TO THE SUBJUGATION OF THEIR RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE TO THE DICTATES OF A BUNCH OF OFFICE-BROKERS WHO ARE TRYING TO BUILD UP A MACHINE FOR THE EXPRESS PURPOSE OF PARCELING OUT THE SPOILS, even as the Roman soldiers divided the raiment of the Supreme Commander of the Common People

What we have said in connection with this primary has been said more in sorrow than in anger We would willingly have held our peace We would have much preferred that even the appearance of dictation had been absent from the contest We would have sat silent under the exercise of all influences not wholly unfair in favor of or against particular candidates, recognizing the individual right of choice in this matter

BUT WHEN A JUNTA OF OFFICE-HOLDING POLITICIANS PUBLICLY PROCLAIM THEMSELVES TO BE PROPRIETARIES OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY AND ATTEMPT TO DICTATE ITS NOMINATIONS THUS USURPING THE RIGHTS OF ITS MEMBERS WE FEEL CALLED UPON TO PROTEST WITH ALL THE POWER THAT IS IN US

If we have been zealous, it has been through an earnest desire to further the interests of the party whose principles we deem most worthy of our support and whose success we think best for the good of the nation and there is not the slightest doubt in our mind that the best and most effective manner of doing so is to rebuke the arrogant bosses who have dared to make a slate and have had the temerity to demand its ratification by the Republican voters as a matter of royal prerogative

This nation REBELLED AGAINST A KING a century ago It cannot at this late date be expected to BOW BEFORE A SELF CONSTITUTED SET OF BOSSES

THE BURGESS AND HIS SALARY.

Some illuminating opinions have been produced concerning the laws regulating the compensation of Burgesses of boroughs, more particularly the Burgesses of Connellsville and New Haven respectively

Prior to the Constitution of 1874, and for some years thereafter, Burgesses were mere police magistrates The Town Council was the municipal Senate which governed after the manner of Rome's great tribunal Its power was absolute The Burgess might look in upon its deliberations, but he had to take a back seat with the rest of the Common People

Borough government was later modeled more closely after State and National government The Burgess was made an executive officer of limited powers, but finally accorded the right of veto With this accession of dignity, the Town Council was authorized by the Acts of 1876 and 1895 to fix a salary for the office in lieu of the fees which the Burgess formerly received as a police magistrate, being the same fees as Justices of the Peace receive for like services These laws set no limit to the salary the Town Council might fix The Acts of 1905 and 1907 prescribe certain limitations In none of these laws is the fixing of the salary mandatory and the conclusion follows that when the Town Council fails to do so the Burgess is entitled to the fees mentioned

In New Haven, it seems that the only ordinance passed bearing upon this question fixed the salary of the Burgess for but one year It seems plain that after the expiration by limitation of this ordinance the fee bill of the Burgess was revived

The ordinance under which Burgess Soisson has been drawing a salary of $60 per month was passed in 1900 and was a lawful ordinance under the Acts of 1876 and 1895, which set no limit on the amount which might be voted the Burgess as salary Burgess Soisson assumed the duties of his office the first Monday in March 1906 The Act of 1905 limited the amount of salary that might be paid to the Burgess to $50 per year for each 1,000 inhabitants or majority fraction thereof as ascertained by the last decennial census

The ordinance of 1900 conflicted with this law and it is claimed became in consequence inoperative but the payment of the salary of $60 continued without objection and the point is now raised that, under the Constitution such salary may not be diminished during the incumbency of Burgess Soisson The latter holds that the Act of 1905 did not operate as a repeal of the ordinance of 1900 while the Town Council holds that it did This is the whole point of the dispute If Burgess Soisson is still clear in his views he should have the matter tested in the courts

This terse story teaches that the borough laws should be clarified as well as codified

THE ORGAN AND THE NEWSPAPERS

The Organ of the Organization treats the primary issues with flippancy and even scurrility the remainder of the Republican press with dignity and earnestness The Herald gives open and active support to the slated candidates The Standard and The Courier neither advocate nor oppose any man's candidacy, but only demand that the field be fair and open to all The Herald is the mouthpiece of the Machine The Standard and The Courier speak for no combination or ring but only for the rights of the people

The Herald would have the people think otherwise, and to that end charges that The Standard and The Courier are factional when as a matter of fact, evidenced by their columns, they are simply and only Republican Neither have declared for anybody and The Courier has specifically stated that it is not for or against any candidates slated or unslated, but only for a Square Deal for everybody It is not a question of men, but of principles

The Standard and The Courier are Republican and Right The Herald is factional and Wrong No amount of abusive and misleading verbiage will conceal these facts They are blazoned in the prints every day Every intelligent voter can see them

The decision in the High School literary contest between Connellsville and Uniontown is particularly galling to the Uniontown Genius and John Lester Keffer ex pedagogue and present editor who protests that the decision was contrary to the facts just as the decision of the Electoral Commission of 1876 was contrary to the returns Mud Island does not agree with Editor Keffer Perhaps we are all prejudiced In any event there's no use chewing the rag It is a well established principle that we cannot go behind the returns

OPPOSED TO BOSSES.

The Candidates Should Have Open Field and the Voters Should Make Nominations.

Uniontown News Standard

The News Standard in all its past history has maintained its strictly non partisan attitude in Republican primary contests and in the most heated struggles has never swerved from that position Its policy has been to allow all candidates an equal opportunity to be voted for without saying anything in its columns to strengthen or injure the chances of any and after the primary election to stand with the nominees without regard to any factional affiliations which they may have had theretofore fighting the battles of the party There is no doubt of the wisdom of this position It has been attested by a long line of Republican victories which have been won by the Republican party in this county after primary elections were free open and fair This course was never departed from by the party organs until the Morning Herald, a so-called Organization Organ introduced methods into these primary contests never before heard of in clean and respectable politics resulting in conditions within the party which threaten it with serious injury and which demand that something be said in defense of the party and its individual members

The News Standard regrets that a situation has arisen requiring it to speak plainly as to the proper conduct of a primary contest but believing that the success of the party is paramount to any man or set of men arrogating to themselves the title of Organization Leaders that the conditions which now threaten to impair its efficiency can only be eradicated by a plain statement of the facts no other course seems open The Republican organization has been the work of more than half a century of care and labor It is composed of every individual member of the Republican party It has been built up by the faithful service of the workers in the ranks for the advancement of Republican principles not for the personal benefit of a few self-appointed bosses It is the right of every Republican to become a candidate for office and submit his claims to the voters Aside from the common interest which all men feel in the welfare of their country and which they can only make effective by their affiliation with a political party the honor of political preferment and trust is the only incentive to faithful party service Primary elections are provided by law for the purpose of giving the voters an opportunity to select their candidates for office and this right should be exercised without dictation or interference The right of suffrage is the one privilege over which the individual Republican voter should have full and complete control and no organization or set of men claiming to be such has any right to meddle with it Only by giving every voter his free and open choice and every candidate an equal chance can party harmony exist and party success continue

This being a national campaign year it was natural that a large number of Republicans would announce as candidates for the local offices This was their right and privilege and no man or set of men should have interfered with it The contest should have been free and friendly without any interference and it is to be regretted that a few self appointed political bosses have undertaken to pick out a ticket for the voters It might be asked very properly what authority have these men to choose a ticket for the Republican voters? What right have they to do what the law intends shall be done at the primary election? By whom have these men invested with the power to pick out the ticket for (?) the voters thereby attempting to deprive every other candidate of an opportunity to have his claims considered and thereby attempting to deprive the voters of the right to name their own candidates

Judge J Q Van Swearingen has been honored by the people of Fayette county in his election to the bench It was fitting that his nomination and election were accomplished with complete freedom [illegible] those who opposed him believed that he would properly respect the dignity of the exalted position to which he was chosen and that his administration would be free from any act or deed that would detract from the high esteem in which the judicial office is held Public sentiment does not approve of the action of Judge Van Swearingen in permitting and authorizing the use of his name in connection with the slated ticket thereby dragging the judicial ermine down into the mire of factional politics It is putting it mildly to say that the people are shocked and indignant at such conduct from a member of the court Granting that as judge he is clothed with much power and authority will the Republicans of Fayette county concede that in electing him as one of their judges they also delegated to him the right to name their candidates and to say who shall and who shall not seek office? Such attempts on the part of the judiciary to use the power of office to dictate party politics are fraught with great danger to the rights and liberties of the people and are uniformly disastrous

Davis W Henderson was last fall elected District Attorney of Fayette county He represents the great commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the prosecution of criminal causes but does this make him a political dictator? As a private individual where does he get the right to say and how does the office of district attorney invest him with power to say who shall and who shall not be candidates and receive the people's suffrages

George Patterson assistant district attorney and Alex M Bell county detective are two of the slate makers It will be conceded that these men have a right to their individual choice as candidates but could it be intended that because George Patterson and Alex McBeth are for a set of candidates all others should withdraw or be defeated? Would the exercise of [illegible] then be such conclusive evidence of the strength and integrity of the candidates chosen as to deprive all others of consideration? Few Republicans would be willing to delegate to them their right of suffrage their choice of candidates and the privilege of saying who shall and who shall not be candidates

The Republicans of Fayette county have honored Peter A Johns by electing him to a number of high offices and only last fall made him sheriff Yet it is hard to understand how he can figure that this makes him a party boss with the right to regulate and control the elective franchise and the right to loose and bind [illegible]

Then it Irwin H M Kephart and [illegible] Brownfield are the remaining slate makers and publishers of the Herald who assume to say to the slated Republican workers of this county [illegible] not get our consent to become candidates Many if not all of these have been deprived of the privilege of having their candidates fairly considered have worked at the polls and [illegible] for all these men and is this the simplest gratitude should have prompted them from such treatment [illegible] have received Considering that among the makers and publishers of the slate are the Judge District Attorney Assistant District Attorney Sheriff and County Detective it is very likely they will keep in step with the [illegible] with very bad grace for that [illegible]

[illegible] our servants [illegible] masters [illegible] fortunate and fatal that these men [illegible] have [illegible] their duty [illegible] of this organization [illegible] and later publish it as a so called party organ [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] primary [illegible] attempting [illegible] if any [illegible] the candidates [illegible] their [illegible] want [illegible] what [illegible] is [illegible] the rest of the people [illegible] the free and independent exercise [illegible] of a Bosse

Chas. F. Hood's Straightforward Appeal for True Republicanism.

To the Republican Voters of Fayette County.

As some of you may be aware, I am a candidate for the Republican Congressional nomination in this district. I have asked no man's permission to present myself in this capacity. A lifelong Republican, I have been taught that Republicanism means a government of the people, by the people and for the people. This was the doctrine upheld by Lincoln and is the ideal of Roosevelt. Possibly that definition is worn out in Pennsylvania, but I cannot believe it. My faith in the plain, stalwart, sensible men, who constitute the masses of this country is not dead. You are still the real rulers of affairs and the politician who plays the game without reckoning on this fact must eventually lose.

I have nothing to say regarding my own public career or public services. You once honored me by a seat in the State Legislature. Its records will show whether I deserved your confidence. Further concerning these things it is for those who know me to speak, not I. I own no newspaper to blazon my comings or goings, my down-settings and up-risings. I own no postmasters nor revenue collectors who do my bidding. I have not the wherewithal to procure "disseminators" of information by the score. I haven't any seeds to distribute.

Nevertheless, I ask you to vote for me at the primary election this Saturday, April 11th. I ask it in the name of Republicanism and in the interest of Republicanism, real Republicanism, the kind that bows to no master and recognizes no boss.

Last week the people of this county were treated to a remarkable spectacle. Thirty or forty different candidates for the various nominations in the gift of the party have entered the field seeking the support of their fellow Republicans in the time-honored ways, not deeming it necessary to ask the permission of any man or set of men. In Thursday's edition of the Uniontown Morning Herald, the personally conducted advertising medium of the two gentlemen now high-brow to see, I take this opportunity of asking you one and all for your vote and influence, promising you if nominated and elected first to be an honor to myself and an honor to the Republican party and fair and honest with the taxpayers.—Adv.

ARTHUR L. LOWE,

A Connellsville Workingman Who Isn't on the Slate, But Who Is a Candidate for Commissioner Just the Same.

Among those who entered the Republican primary race for County Commissioner under the impression that it was in every sense Republican, and that it was a clear and open field for every individual ambition in which merit and service rather than boss servitude and boss favor would count, was Arthur L. Lowe of Connellsville.

Mr. Lowe is an honest and industrious workingman, for ten years past a skilled and valued employe of the manufacturing firm of Boyts, Porter & Company. He is 29 years of age. He was born and reared in Connellsville and educated in its public schools. He is a totaltaller, but he is not a Prohibitionist. He has always been a faithful worker in the Republican cause. He has the endorsement of the Central Trades Council of both Connellsville and Uniontown.

Mr. Lowe is not on the Bosses' Slate, but his fellow-workmen will not permit him to withdraw his name from the list of candidates. He is in the race to the finish, and his friends are confident that, with the assistances his merits should receive, he will land winner in the contest.

Mr. Lowe respectfully asks the support of Republicans who dare to call their souls their own, and in the event of his election he pledges himself that he will know no faction, clique or favorites, but that he will endeavor to serve the best interests of the taxpayers, earnestly, honestly and loyally.—Adv.

A MANLY APPEAL

By Unslated Candidate for County Treasurer for a Square Deal, Geo. Fuehrer's Warm Words.

To each individual Republican of Fayette county:

I belong to a party who has a leader who preaches and advocates a Square Deal to all. I appeal to you as a Republican for the recognition of that principle in our local contest.

Being a victim of circumstances and not brought out by any particular clique or faction, but slated against by a few of the Republican leaders of Fayette county and being the only candidate in the field to give the voters an opportunity for second choice for County Treasurer, I feel that you should take an interest in me in behalf of every free-born American citizen, and give him that which belongs to him, rather than make him the victim of a few in a dark back room, as such is against the Constitution and freedom of our country, gained by the sacrifice of the best blood of our nation.

Hoping that you are not one to take orders, but in advocate of free citizenship, I am, ours very truly,

BERWIND WHITE CO.

Say There Will Be No Reduction in Wages at the Mines.

SMITHFIELD, April 9.—(Special.) A letter from Charles O'Neil, who is employed at the mines of the Berwind-White Company in Somerset county, states that the company has this week posted notices that there will be no reduction in wages of the company's employes for the present, or during the year, the present scale to stand until 1909.

The news, he states, was received with a great deal of satisfaction by the workmen about the plants. The mines are getting out more than a normal tonnage of coal.

Struck by Train.

SMITHFIELD, April 9.—(Special.) While Ray Brown and Arthur Grannell were walking along the track here last night a freight train came along. Brown was struck and hurled from the track, sustaining injuries which may cause his death.

Grannell was more fortunate. He leaped from the track at the last instant and escaped harm. Brown was taken to his home and his injuries are receiving surgical attention.

AARON'S

Lifelong Republican of Dunbar Township Making Strong Race for Nomination.

W. S. Blaney, popularly and widely known as "Win" Blaney, is canvassing Fayette county in his contest for the Republican nomination for County Commissioner, and the way he is winning voters is proving a marvel to his opponents. Blaney has a record as a man and a Republican which does not admit of successful attack, and his circle of friends is growing steadily larger.

His years totaling 60, the candidate presents the appearance of a man 20 years younger, and his activity and usefulness seem to grow with each day. Mrs. Sarah Blaney, 91 years old, lives just over the West Virginia line in Monongalia county, and she is watching with great interest the race which her "youngster is putting up for the nomination. The mother of four boys who served during the Civil War, she is eager to see how the Republicans of Fayette county will consider the claims of "Win."

At the age of 14 "Win" went to the front, but this was driving a team in the army, not being old enough to enlist. His four elder brothers were in the fighting line, one dying on the field at Fredericksburg and another at Staunton, Va. A third was captured and served in Andersonville. Of the two who returned from the war, one died shortly after.

For 39 years "Win" Blaney has been a resident of Fayette county and there never was a stiffer Republican fighter and more esteemed man in the county who never held a public office. His contest for the Commissionership is his first effort along this line, but his efforts for the party in Dunbar township have made him widely known and universally respected.

In 1869 Blaney entered the employ of the Dunbar Furnace Company as a miner, spending 11 years in the mines. Since 1880 he has been living upon his own farm in Dunbar township, there raising his family, consisting of two sons and four daughters.

During the strike of 1894 Blaney was in sympathy with the men thrown out of employment, and, being in a position to materially assist those in need, refused to stand back, and for his steadfastness and kindness at that time, many men are now singing his praises and working in his behalf.

Judging by his conduct as a man and his lifetime of square dealing and devotion to purpose, Blaney will make the best kind of public official. Voters who have heard of Blaney will know that when they select him for one of the Commissioners, they are getting the right man to do a man's work.

IMMENSE DIVIDENDS

Have Been Paid Out by the United States Steel Corporation.

WATER SQUEEZED FROM STOCK

Since the Organization of the Corporation Totals Stupendous Figures of $236,000,000.

There are many holders of shares in the United States Steel Corporation throughout the coke region, and they are always interested in figures concerning the giant corporation. The Wall Street Journal has prepared figures concerning the combination since its corporation, which give stupendous totals.

In the first nine months of the Corporation's existence there was spent for new construction less than $17,000,000, and a similar amount in the year 1902.

Expenditures for the new construction have increased practically every year since then. As an example, approximately $31,000,000 was spent in 1903, but in the depressed period of 1904 the amount was less than $18,000,000.

In 1905 construction expenditures aggregated approximately $24,000,000; in 1906, $32,200,000, and in 1907 a new high record was established with approximately $67,000,000, making a total for the six years and nine months of more than $206,000,000.

Approximately $162,500,000 was expended for ordinary repairs.

The following table shows the amount expended by the United States Steel Corporation from the time of organization to December 31, 1907, for various purposes:

Depreciation and replacement funds	$140,477,906
Various accounts charged off	8,621,983
Sinking funds	37,284,618
New construction	206,075,286
Total	$398,079,783
Balance new construction, December 31, 1907	30,000,000
Total	$428,079,783
Ordinary repairs	162,485,413
Total	$590,565,196

While it cannot be said that the above total represents the amount of water that has been ejected from the Steel Corporation's securities since organization, still it must be remembered that the larger sum of $146,477,906, in connection with depreciation and replacement funds, has been used for the purpose of strengthening the operating efficiency of the Corporation, thereby greatly increasing its earning power.

There is no question that the new construction expenditures and appropriations for that purpose, aggregating more than $236,000,000, have all gone towards eliminating water absorbed by the corporation at the time of its organization.

The total of $590,565,196 compares with total net earnings of $837,820,638. By comparing these two totals it will be seen at a glance that the management of the Steel Corporation has not been sacrificing the financial and physical status of the company for the sake of making a stronger showing from the standpoint of disbursments to shareholders.

A WEEK OF DENIAL.

The Salvation Army Is Making a Special Effort to Raise Money for Charitable Purposes.

The Salvation Army all over the United States is this week making an extra effort to raise funds with which to carry on the labors of the charitable organization, and the Connellsville branch is joining in the work.

The local branch is striving to raise the sum of $500, and during this week the Captain and his assistants are making a house to house canvass of the two towns for the purpose of gathering this amount.

The Captain of the local band took charge on February 4th, and since that time has fed 600 people, given out 400 pieces of clothing to the needy, given lodging to 100 persons and given as many car fare to get out of the town. To do all this he has collected the sum of $153.14. The Captain makes an appeal to the people this week to respond to the house to house calls, and along with money he states that clothing, shoes or groceries will be thankfully received. He acknowledges here the sum of $2.44 from the Rich Hill church in the mountains. Meetings are held in the hall every evening except Monday.

As evidence of the good work the Army is doing throughout the world, these figures are given out by the local branch:

Countries and colonies occupied, 54; languages in which salvation is preached, 28; corps and outposts, 8,055; officers and cadets, including social, 21,161; bandsmen, 19,683; periodicals published, 69; total copies per issue, 1,013,292; social institutions, 756; shelter and food depots, 193; Beds supplied, 5,449,004; meals supplied, 9,557,241; prison gate homes, 17; accommodation of same, 456, satisfactory cases per annum, 1,711; rescue homes, 115; accommodation of same, 2,862; satisfactory cases per annum, 5,589.

P. R. R. Shipments of Coke.

For the week ending April 4 the Pennsylvania railroad handled on its lines east of Pittsburg 129,166 tons of coke and 686,978 tons of bituminous coal. For this year up to April 4 the shipments of bituminous coal totalled 8,780,011 and of coke 1,517,418, as compared with 9,759,220 for the former and 3,672,160 tons during the corresponding period last year.

Local Option Meeting.

There will be a Local Option mass meeting held in the Soisson Theatre Thursday evening, April 9. Rev. J. T. McCrory, D. D., of Pittsburg, and Rev. Father Lambing, of Scottdale, will talk. All are invited.

THE COLD SNAP

Alarms Fruit Growers But So Far Trees Have Escaped.

The sudden change in the weather this morning will no doubt cause much uneasiness among the farmers, but so far it is generally believed that the fruit in this vicinity and generally all over the county has not been injured by the cold spell.

One can determine this by opening a bud and examining the stigma on the pistil, and if it has not become brown the blossom is not injured. If the blossom is perfectly opened and the pistil is brown the blossom is killed. Summer clothing was laid aside this morning by the pedestrians and furs and overcoats were donned instead. Warmer weather is promised so that fruit trees and flowers are not in danger.

PLAY CANCELLED

For Amelia Bingham But Tickets Are Good for Performance of Isabel Irving.

Manager Fred Robbins of the Soisson Theatre received word this morning of the cancellation of the date for Amelia Bingham at the local theatre, the company having closed up for the season. Manager Robbins announces, however, that those tickets already engaged for Amelia Bingham will hold good and at the same prices for Isabel Irving in her delightful play, "Susan In Search of a Husband," which will be at the Soisson April 17.

Holders of tickets should call up the box office and notify the Manager of their intention to set the tickets stand for the Isabel Irving play. They will probably not regret the change, as "Susan" in search of her young husband, who disappeared seven years before the beginning of the first act, is one of those spirited and dashing dramas in which something startling is always happening, and in a startling manner. Connellsville theatregoers know Miss Irving for her good work here formerly, and her new vehicle gives her an excellent opportunity to display her charming personality to the best.

"The French Maids," a genuine burlesque with pretty girls and fine stage settings, is the offering at the Soisson for April 15.

M. J. WELSH, DEMOCRAT, IN RACE FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

Well Known Coke Man and Philippine Veteran Merits the Full Vote of the Party for the Office to Which He Aspires.

Matthew J. Welsh, formerly of Dunbar and Connellsville, but for the past four years a resident of the Klondyke coke fields, who is asking the Democrats of Fayette county for the nomination to the office of County Treasurer, was born at Mt. Braddock October 2, 1873. His father, Thomas Welsh, was one of the pioneer coke workers of the county. Mr. Welsh attended the schools of Bessemer and Everson and completed his education in the schools of Mt. Pleasant. During vacation he worked on the coke yards and around the mines and at seventeen years of age was given a clerkship with the McClure Coke Company. He resigned his position with the McClure Coke Company to accept the management of the general merchandise store for James Cray, Sr., of Dunbar, which occupation he followed until Mr. Cray retired from business, after which he went to work on the yards as a leveler and removed to West Leisenring, where he resided until 1894. During the great strike he took strong grounds in behalf of the rights of labor, and wrote a number of articles to the Pittsburg papers, defending the workingmen in their struggle for justice. He was elected chairman of the Executive Board, District No. 7, of the United Mine Workers of America and is claimed to have been the youngest man ever to have filled the position, being at the time only twenty years of age. He was a delegate to all the conventions and Secretary of the local branch at West Leisenring. After working on the B. & O. railroad for a while he resumed clerking in New Haven for three years. When the Spanish-American War broke out Mr. Welsh, prompted with the spirit of patriotism, enlisted in Company D, Tenth Pennsylvania Volunteers, and gave up a lucrative situation.

Matthew J. Welsh.

He received a bullet wound through the right hand at the battle of Malate, P. I., July 31, 1898, from the effects of which he remained in the hospital several weeks. When the Philippine uprising took place Matt could have received his discharge and returned to the States on account of disability through the wound in his right hand, but refused to consider it and served until the return of the regiment.

On his return to his home in Fayette county he received two gold medals and will soon receive another from the government. Was also tendered a banquet and presented with a handsome gold watch by his Dunbar friends in recognition of his services as a soldier. In 1898 he was urged by a large number of voters to make the race for the Legislature, and though confident of the election said he would not let politics interfere with his duties as a soldier. Mr. Welsh was asked to run for Treasurer three years ago, but preferred to have no contest. Mr. Welsh was war correspondent for the Pittsburg Post and Connellsville News and is a capable writer.—Extract from the "History of Fayette County."

ALBERT PAYSON TERHUNE
COPYRIGHT, 1907 BY GEORGE H. BROADHURST

"Don't give me any insolence!" he roared. "I won't stand for it, and"—

"Moreover," quietly continued Bennett, as though the boss had not spoken, "I shall be very much obliged if in future you will knock at my door instead of bursting in on me. This is my private office, not yours."

"Do you mean to"—

"I've explained as clearly as I can just what I mean. If you don't understand me I can't supply you with intelligence."

"Bennett," said the boss, his burning rage steadied down to a white heat, far more dangerous, but less incoherent, "you and me are talking too much and saying too little. We've got to come to a showdown. You're a clever boy and you made a rattling good fight, and you're on the right side of the public and of the press too. You're the best material we've got, and if you try and do the right thing there's no limit to what you can rise to—but only if you do the right thing."

"'The right thing,'" echoed Bennett. "What do you mean by the right thing?"

"I mean you've got to do the right thing by the men who put you where you are today."

"That's fair. But who put me where I am today?"

"I did—I, Dick Horrigan. Who ever heard of you till I took you up? Nobody. If I didn't make you mayor, who did, I'd like to know?"

"The voters. The people of this city."

"The voters," scoffed Horrigan. "The deuce they did! Who had you nominated?"

"You did. But it was the public who elected me, and I'm going to obey your orders in one thing. I'm going to 'do the right thing by the men who put me where I am today.' I'm going to pay the voters for their trust in me by giving them a fair and square administration. In the case of this Borough Street railway franchise bill, for instance," tapping the document lying before him on his desk, "before I sign that bill I intend to make sure it's for the good of the people, that it is for the good of the city, not merely for the good of Richard Horrigan and a clique of his friends and heelers. No, don't swear. It'll do you no good. I'm firm on this matter. If you're discontented with me it's your own fault. I warned you months ago that if I was elected I should keep my oath of office. As for this Borough bill"—

"As for this Borough bill," broke in Horrigan savagely, "you'll sign it. If you don't"—

"Well?" queried Bennett, as the boss paused, choked by his own fury. "If I don't sign it—what then?"

"If you don't, your political career is ended from this time on. See? It's ended. Smashed flat. You think of yourself as a fine, promising young man who's on the road to the governorship and maybe to the White House. Well, you aren't. You're what Dick Horrigan made you, and your future will be what Dick Horrigan chooses to make it. I lifted you up, and I can tear you down just as easy. And, what's more, by ——, I'll do it if you don't sign the Borough bill. I'm a man of my word, and before ever you were nominated I pledged my word to have that bill put through. The bill paid your election expenses. It"—

"I paid my own election expenses. You know that."

"Your personal expenses, perhaps. But who paid for parades, halls, banners, fireworks, spellbinders, advertisements, workers and watchers and all the other million things that elected you? The men behind that Borough bill paid them. And they did it on the understanding you'd sign the bill."

"In other words," remarked Bennett, "you made a bargain for me. Well, I can't keep it."

"Oh, I'll keep it all right. You'll sign that bill or you'll"—

"Mr. Horrigan," exclaimed Bennett, controlling his temper with more and more difficulty, "you said something just now about our coming to a showdown. This is the time for it. I want you to remember henceforth that I wear no man's collar—yours or any one else's—and that you can't deliver any goods you've bargained for in my name. If I sign that bill it won't be under your orders, but because I think it right."

"Oh," laughed Horrigan, who thought he began to see the drift of the other's mind, "I don't hold out for that. I don't care why you sign it as long as you do sign it."

"What do you think about the bill yourself?" inquired Alwyn. "Do you consider it honest?"

"What do I care? It's got to be signed, and"—

"I care. And I think the bill is fraudulent."

"Getting tender in the conscience, aren't you? Well"—

"If you put it that way, yes. I think this Borough bill is crooked from first to last. But"—

"What's the matter with it? Ain't"—

"Let me explain," pursued Alwyn. "This bill gives the Borough Street Railway company the right to use whatever motive power they choose to. It gives them the right to charge five cent fares without any transfers. In one paragraph there's a clause permitting them to build a subway if they want one. By another paragraph's concessions they can build a conduit and lease it out for telephone or telegraph wires. By another they can do an express business. But all these provisions are as nothing compared to the fact that the bill gives the streets above and below ground to the Borough company forever and ever—not for a term of years, but until the end of the world. It delivers that route to the company not only for our time, but for always, and binds us and our descendants to its terms. That is the chief outrage of the whole thing. To think that the"—

"Oh, we've got a howling reformer in the mayor's seat, have we?" scoffed Horrigan. "If I'd known that"—

"The people have got a man who is trying to protect their rights and property. Here's a letter I received today. You'll recognize the name of the capitalist who wrote it. You know he is honest as well as wise. This is his proposition: He will pay $2,000,000 for that same franchise, give the city 10 per cent of the gross receipts and turn over the whole plant to it at the end of fifty years. What do you think of that?"

"It's a fake."

"It is a bona fide offer. He volunteers to deposit $1,000,000 to bind the bargain. Now, what I want to ask you, Mr. Horrigan, is this: If the franchise is worth $2,000,000, why are you and your faction in the board of aldermen so anxious to give it away for nothing?"

"Look here!" blustered the boss. "I"—

"I am looking," returned Bennett. "I've been looking deeper into it than you realize. I asked you a question just now. I'll answer it myself in one word—'Graft!' That is why you want to give away a franchise that is worth $2,000,000."

"Graft!" snorted Horrigan contemptuously. "The same old reformer howl! What's your idea of graft anyway?"

"Graft is unearned increment. Money to which the recipient has no legal or moral right. That is"—

"So! Then show me the man who ain't a grafter! A lawyer shows his client how to evade the law, and he takes a fee for doing it. What's that but graft? A magazine takes pay for printing an advertisement its editors know is a fake. What's that? Graft! When a congressman votes for an appropriation because another congressman has agreed to vote for one of his, what's that? Graft! When a five thousand a year senator retires at the end of ten years worth a million, what's that? Graft! A police captain on $2,750 a year buys yachts and country estates. Graft! How about the railroad president who gets stock free in a corporation that ships over his road, or the insurance man or banker who gives or takes fat loans on fancy securities and clears 1,000 per cent? Grafters, all of 'em! Grafters! Every one grafts who can or who isn't too stupid. Show me a man who doesn't graft and I'll show you a fool. Present company not excepted."

"That's where you're wrong," returned Alwyn, ignoring the slur and speaking with a judicial quiet oddly at contrast with the boss' vehemence. "The man who said 'Honesty is the best policy' knew what he was talking about. It pays best not only hereafter, but here as well. Why did Missouri choose Folk for governor? Because in spite of his faults he is honest. Why was La Follette sent to the senate from Wisconsin? Because, faults and all, he was honest. Why did the people of this country make Roosevelt their president? Were they blind to his faults and foibles? No, but they knew he was honest! I am honest. This bill isn't. That is why I won't sign it."

"You won't, eh?" roared Horrigan. "Then veto it! Veto it if you dare! I'll not only smash your political career, but I'll pass the bill over your veto. That'll show you pretty well how you and me stand as to power in the city. I'll make you the laughingstock of the administration by taking the whole thing out of your hands and passing it in spite of you."

"I doubt it," answered Bennett, paling, but meeting coolly the fiery wrath in Horrigan's little red eyes. "I intend to fight your Borough bill in the aldermanic chamber and outside that council. To pass a bill over my veto you'll have to get a two-thirds majority. That means fourteen votes. You have only your 'solid thirteen.' And I'll make it my business to see you don't get a fourteenth vote."

"I'll look out for that, all right, all right."

"One thing more, Mr. Horrigan. I have reason to believe there is bribery in this matter. I'll ferret out the name of every man who gives or takes a bribe in connection with the Borough franchise bill, and I'll send every one of them to jail—not only the aldermen, but the capitalists who are behind the measure. Receiver and thief shall go to jail together."

"Is that so?" chuckled Horrigan. "Then, Mr. Reformer, let me tell you who is really behind this whole affair, the man you'll have to jail first of all, Mr. Charles Watrous right, uncle of the girl you're trying to marry."

He leaned back to note the effect of his revelation, but Bennett's face moved no muscle, gave no hint of what lay beneath.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

Our Men's Store is Separate and Apart From the Rest of Our Establishment.

The Grouping of Our Men's Clothing and Accessory Apparel in One Section of the Store is a Great Aid to Shopping.

Our men's store is an establishment big in itself. Its arrangement is such that a man need not enter another department than those devoted to his wares. We believe that it is due to this feature largely that we enjoy such an extensive business with men. A purchase can be made quickly and conveniently. The entire right half of the main floor is given over to men's wear. Haberdashery, Shoes, Clothing, Hats, all on the first floor. No steps to climb, just step in off the street. The handiest place in town for a man to shop. The high class of all merchandise sold under the Wright Metzler name, added to the accessibility of our shops make this the logical place for men to shop.
